

Ungodly Facts, Real Power, and Holy Fear: Telling the Plain Truth

Ellen F. Davis

Festival of Homiletics 2020

In the Bible, the heart is the organ of...

- thought
- will
- imagination
- loyalty
- faith and faithfulness.

“Insights get lost.” (Brevard S. Childs)

Reality is indivisible; the human heart and the physical world do not function in totally separate spheres.

Our core vocation is to shape our words, imaginations, and lives in accordance with a certain story....

a story that...

- comes to us from outside ourselves,
- the church is obligated to hear
and probe for truth.

We have a responsibility to affirm the reality of...

- the moral imagination as a social force
- a genuine politics, which negotiates difference in community, with a concern for truth.

Guidelines for Truthful Storytelling

I must tell the scriptural story with...

transparency, opening a window into the present moment.

faith, looking for God's work of creation and preservation. (Do humans honor it?)

hope, in a way that opens out toward the future.

love, looking for how love is at work.

Exodus as master narrative, essential for (at least)...

Isaiah

Ezekiel

Matthew

Jewish theology

Qur'an

Contemporary Christian theologies:

African, Latin American, African diaspora

Why Exodus may help us now:

It is...

- A creation-oriented story
- A story about power
- A story about fear (crazy fear, natural fear, holy fear)

“The children of Israel became fruitful, and they swarmed and multiplied and became really really massive, and the earth was filled with them.” (Exod. 1:7)

* How does that sound in Genesis-perspective?

* How does that sound to Pharaoh?

“swarmers”
of the Nile

From the outset, we see that...

...Pharaoh is both afraid and contemptuous of the Israelites.

...Pharaoh is on a collision course with God.

Image: Nina Paley

1989

THE END OF NATURE

BILL McKIBBEN

10TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION WITH A NEW INTRODUCTION

"By the end of nature Mr. McKibben means the end of nature as a force independent of man... for a man preaching apocalypse, he speaks in a measured and civilized voice that deserves a hearing."
—NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW

2010

"What I have to say about this book is very simple: read it, please. Straight through to the end. Whatever else you were planning to do next, nothing could be more important." —BARBARA KINGSOLVER

Bill McKibben

author of The End of Nature

2019

Named One of the Top Ten Books of the Year by The Washington Post

"He has gathered the most vivid statistics, distilled history to its juiciest turns, and made the case as urgently and clearly as can be: The whole breadth of our existence—the 'human game'—is in jeopardy."

—The Washington Post

Falter

NEW YORK TIMES
BESTSELLER

Has the Human Game
Begun to Play Itself Out?

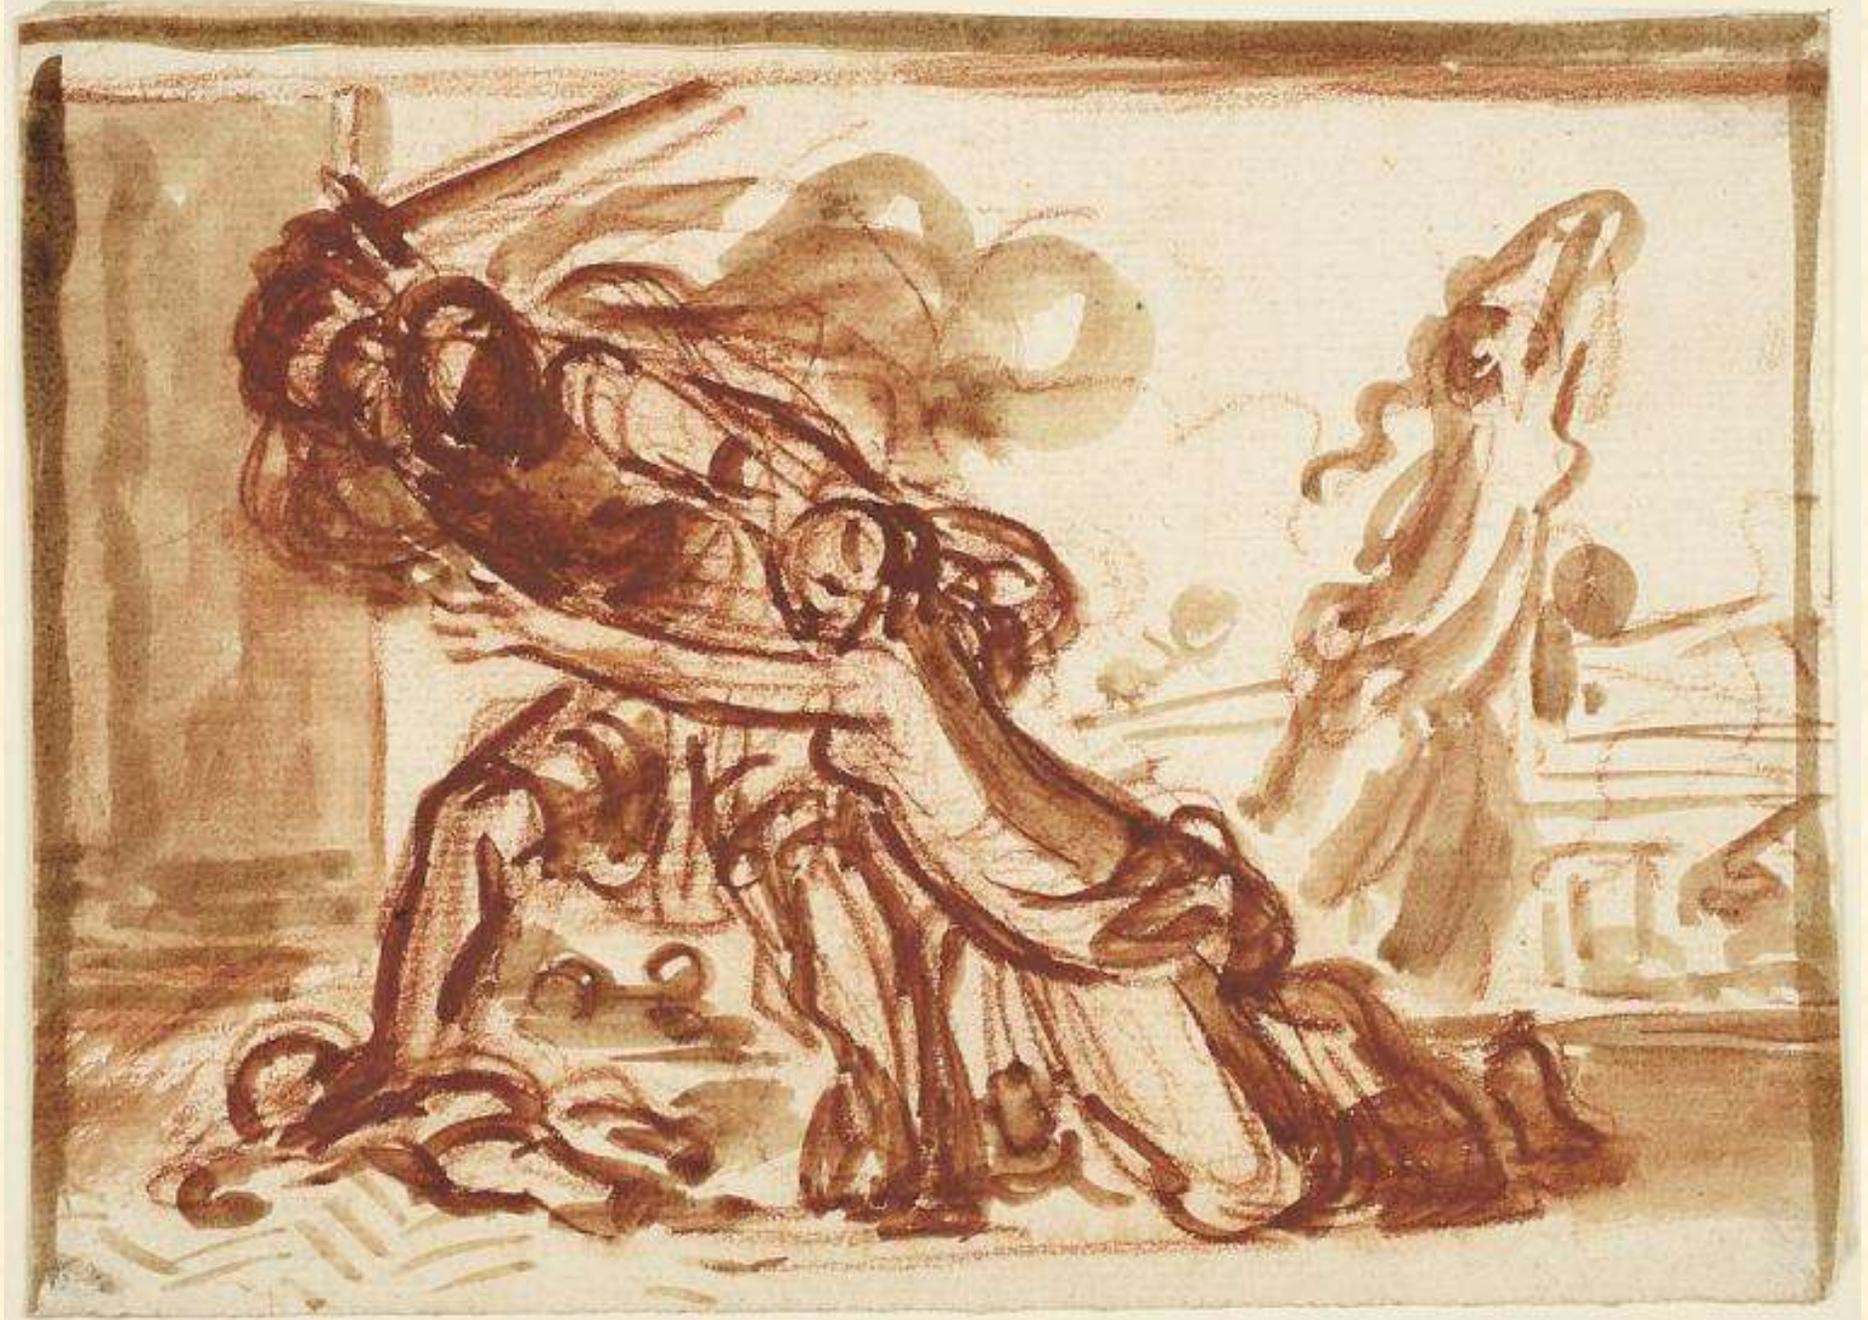

BILL
McKIBBEN

New York Times Bestselling Author of Eaarth and The End of Nature

“Slaughter of the Innocents”
[study, 18th
century] after
Nicolas Poussin

“Powerless” (?)
women shaping
history:

* the midwives
Shifrah & Puah

* Yocheved &
Miriam

* Pharaoh’s daughter
& her attendants

*Zipporah

en-courage –

literally, “put heart into”

cf. French coeur, “heart”

“As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked and Whoa! Egypt was coming on, right behind them, and they were very afraid.” (Exod. 14:10)

“...and Israel saw Egypt dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great ‘hand’ (= act of power) that YHWH had performed against Egypt, and the people feared YHWH, and they trusted in YHWH and in Moses, his servant.” (Exod. 14:30-31)

fear of the Lord = “true faith”

Fear of the Lord is the opposite of ...

arrogance,

recklessness,

moral blindness

Pharaonic insanity

Guidelines for telling the truth in accordance with Scripture:

Telling the story with...

transparency, opening a window into the present moment

faith, looking for God's work (Do humans honor it?)

hope, in a way that opens out toward the future

love, looking for how love is at work